Lucia & Clare Sands with baby Antonio and prolife advocate Joan Bell at the March for Life in Washington DC. (More on pages 4-5)

“You are called to stand up for life! To respect and defend the mystery of life always and everywhere, including the lives of the unborn babies, giving real help and encouragement to mothers in difficult situations. You are called to work and pray against abortion.”

— Saint Pope John Paul II

Give thanks in all circumstances for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

– 1 Thessalonians 5:18

Dear Friends of Life,

As we reflect on the past few months, we are filled with gratitude. Little Antonio, who spent four weeks in the hospital, is now home and receiving the care and therapies he needs. We remain hopeful and deeply thankful for your prayers. Tiffani and her daughter, Mira, have moved into their own place in Grand Forks after a year and a half with us—we are so proud of them and excited for this new chapter. We also celebrated Jenesis turning one, along with honoring the year of love and sacrifice his mother, Pryslee, has given.

Your generosity on Giving Hearts Day this last February meant so much to us. Because of your support, we are able to continue providing a safe and loving home for mothers and their little ones.

Last year, your kindness made it possible for us to provide 1,699 days and nights of care. Each day represented stability, hope, and healing for the women and children we serve—filled with new beginnings, challenges, and the joy of life. This mission is only possible because of you.

Thank you for being a part of this work and for helping these mothers choose life and begin anew — one mother, one baby, one family at a time.

We wish you and your families a blessed Easter.

With gratitude,

Mary Pat Jahner, Director

March for Life Washington DC

Our trip to the March for Life in Washington, D.C. is one we'll never forget. We're deeply grateful to God, to everyone who joined us, and to those who generously supported this faith-filled, pro-life pilgrimage.

Even for those who have attended before, the joy, patience, and spirit of this group made it an especially meaningful and inspiring experience that continues to bear fruit months later.

Pilgrimage goal: "to better know and love Jesus..."

Our goal for the trip was to grow closer to Jesus, strengthen our pro-life commitment, and return renewed in our faith—and those goals were truly exceeded. We witnessed this in countless moments of love, resilience, and faith among our group, each person contributing to a deeply meaningful experience that strengthened our commitment to defending life.

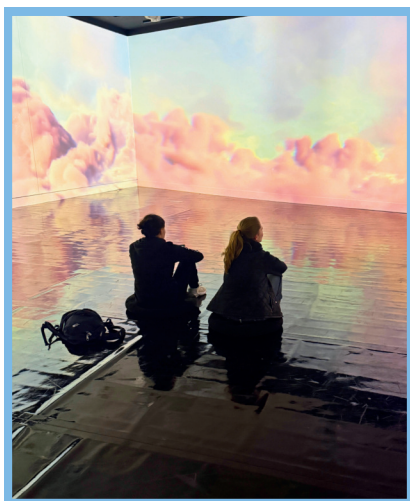

This pilgrimage changed us, and it would not have been possible without the generosity, prayers, and support of so many. We are especially grateful to our donors and hosts who made this journey possible.

Please continue to keep everyone at our Home in your prayers as we serve the Lord and uphold the dignity of life. Thanks to this pilgrimage, we have been blessed with a renewed vigor to support pregnant women and their children – one mother, one baby, one family at time. Again, thank you to each of you for being a part of this mission.

"You formed my inmost being; you knit me in my mother's womb. I praise you, because I am wonderfully made; wonderful are your works! My very self you know." — Psalm 139: 13-14

Holy Women, Faithful Friends

by Mary Pat Jahner

Scripture, both in the Old and New Testaments, is filled with examples of holy women who served God, cared for others, and remained faithfully present to our Lord. Through their humility and gentleness, these women made a lasting impact on the world.

Since our last newsletter, several devoted women who faithfully supported our mission have passed into eternal life. We would like to honor these women in a special way: Dorothy Koester, Barb Langer, Mary Ann McKenna, and Deb Slominski.

Their encouragement, generosity, and faithful witness were a constant source of strength and inspiration. Each woman played a beautiful role in the life and work of our maternity home, and they are and will be deeply missed.

Dorothy Koester

Mary Ann McKenna

Barb Langer

Deb Slominski

I would also like to honor another holy woman who passed away recently, my beautiful mother, Patricia. She passed into eternity on March 17th, the feast of Saint Patrick, a day which had always been special to her.

In Dickinson where I grew up, my siblings and I attended Saint Patrick's Catholic School, and my family belonged to Saint Patrick's Catholic Church where my mom served as the parish nurse and organist. It was a consolation and gift that this particular feast would be the day she went home to the Lord.

When you lose a mother, you lose a lot. As much as I know my mom was ready and that she died a holy death, there is a profound sense of loss when you lose the one who, along with the Lord and your father, gave you life and brought you into the world.

She was the one who nourished me, provided for me each step of the way, and supported me through every stage of my life. This was my mom, and I am sure in various ways, this is every mom. When a woman becomes a mother, her identity is changed and in a profound way, she begins to live for others.

There would not be enough space in several newsletters to recount all that my mom did and sacrificed for others. My mom was an amazing and dedicated nurse and a true servant. She loved her job, but most of all, she loved life and family. Much of her labor of love was for my five siblings and me, whom she lovingly raised with my dad, the love of her life whom she was married to for 56 years.

My parents nurtured a strong Catholic faith which they passed on to us. The example our parents gave us in their marriage, faith, mutual love, sacrifices, and hard work is something my siblings and I still aspire to imitate.

My mom enjoyed the little things in life and lived life to the full. She loved music, finding a bargain, playing rummy and bingo, baking, the Price is Right, and hospitality.

I could not have been blessed with a better mother, and my family and I will miss her at all the moments of life that my mom would show up for. Her presence, her words, her phone calls, and her encouragement are already dearly missed.

As my family and I were going through some of my mother's personal items, we found a small newspaper clipping with a quote on it. The words gave us hope and even joy in her passing to the Lord she loved, to our dear dad, and to so many she knew and loved on this earth.

This quote is especially appropriate for the Easter season, and I share it below with the hope that these words give comfort to those who have also recently lost loved ones:

"In the strength of the hope of the Resurrection, we can look forward expectantly and calmly to death, not fearful nor anxious, because death is a going home to God and to those we love. It is a door through which we pass to everlasting life."

Tiffani's Witness

I went to live at Saint Gianna's in October 2024. I was very early in my pregnancy and had no safe place to be. I was broken, empty, scared, and spiritually dead.

Of course, the home welcomed me with open arms. I was very shy and barely spoke for months. But the staff, which are like family now, stayed by my side and encouraged, supported, and loved me and my baby Mira unconditionally.

I never once felt judged or like a burden even on days when I was sick, couldn't get out of bed, or needed a hospital visit. I always felt loved.

I converted to the Catholic faith during my stay and eventually started attending daily Mass with my beautiful daughter, Mira. The faith is something that is extremely important to me now.

St. Gianna's helped me in so many ways. I cannot count them all, but the biggest gift they gave me was life for my daughter, Mira, and life for myself by showing me the love of God. For this I will be eternally grateful.

You and your intentions will be remembered in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass offered each First Saturday of the month. These intentions were offered November 18th to March 24th.
